"THE BEST HOPE OF MAN

Extracts from Attorney General Francis Biddle's speech on "Democracy and Racial Minorities" follows

What has rendered peculiarly acute any mistreatment of racial minorities -- Japanese Negro, Jewish -- is our reiterated insistence on democratic equality of opportunity, irrespective of race, and the total nature of this war compared to the last.

Far more now than then, every man, white or black, Jew or Gentile, is enlisted to fight or to work for the common cause

I know that there are those who contend that any discussion of these tense and difficult relationships in the midst of a war is unwise.

May stir up trouble -- so the argument runs -- and give ammunition for propaganda and the appearance of disunity to our enemies?

But when all is said and done, I am less concerned about how the United States looks to her enemies.

that I care about is what she looks like to her friends; to those who love and believe in her; to Americans in the field who fight and die for her; to Americans at home who want to be able to speak history has yet to be enacted."

with pride and without any mental reservation when they say with Thomas Jefferson this government, the best hope of man."

Race intolerance is no longer a matter merely of domestic concern. For it undermines our moral authority as a nation which apparently can profess but cannot practice demooracy.

we have talked much of democracy, of the American way of life, in these last few years. But surely it cannot grow into the fullness of realization, as long as we, through indifference or through fear, permit these bitter injustices to continue. DEMOCRACY IS A GREAT WORD

What we do today will write the history of the years to come. Do you remember what Walt Whitman said?

"We have frequently printed the word Democracy. Yet I cannot too often repeat that it is a word the real mist of which still sleeps, quite unwaken'd, notwithstanding the resonance and the many angry tempests out of which its syllables have come, from pen or tongue.

"It is a great word, whose history, I suppose, remains unwritten, because that Denson Tribune. Vol. II, No. 1-45, Jan. 4, 1944 - June 6, 1944. N.p., January 4 - June 6, 1944. Archives Unbound, https://link.gale.com/apps/doc/SC5103678084/GDCS? u=columbiau&sid=GDCS&xid=10e67a78. Accessed 6 Dec. 2020.
